It's not. I'm trying to use google hangouts, but it's been so long since I logged in to google that I had to reset my password and google is not taking the verification code. Ugh. Skype IM?

Thanks,

Claudia

Chris Stoneman is here and he needs to talk. Is your phone working? Carl is looking at the slides and your questions.

Importance: High

Monica,

I just dropped my phone and although it appears to be fine and everything else is working, it says No SIM card installed. If I can't get it fixed before the prep call, I'm not sure if I can call the number through Skype. Am trying to figure that out.

Thanks,

Claudia
